She has the exclusive agency for Gage Brothers Hats, which are conceded to be the most stylish that are worn. Her stock is now ready for inspection and she invites the ladies of Bourbon and surrounding counties to call. She has a choice assortment of Hats in the most desirable effects. All the newest shapes and the most popular colors, daintily trimmed in the latest fashion.

Rev. Geo O. Barnes.

The Rev. Geo. O. Barnes arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Lexington and last night delivered a sermon at the Odd Fellows' Hall. On account of the short notice given there was not a large crowd out to hear him, the announcement only being made late in the evening.

He arranged to speak every night this week and the public is cordially invited to attend the services. The meeting will continue over Sunday next.

Judge Smith's Court.

Officer Bowling, on yesterday, presented to Judge Smith, three burly darkies from Millersburg, who were charged with shooting craps in our neighboring hamlet. The raid was made in a sequestered spot known as "Bully's Hollow." The judge let them off with a fine of $30 and costs.

CLAY'S SHOE STORE.

Mrs. CORNAY WATSON BAIRD's Fall display of Millinery is ready for inspection and she is confident that everybody visiting her store will be enthusiastic over the grand showing of many new and exclusive styles in headwear for women, to say nothing of the bargains in fine trimmed Hats and Bonnets. Mrs. Baird has the exclusive agency for the celebrated Gage Brothers Hat, one of the most fashionable and up-to-date Hats on the market. Visit her store and you will be confronted with the latest designs in Millinery.

SHOULD BE SEEN.—A pen description of my waisting goods could not convey a sense of their beauty or style—they must be seen to be appreciated. Call at once.
HARRY SIMON.

STEPS TO BE TAKEN.—The Courier-Journal, says: "The granting of a franchise to the Bluegrass Traction Company by the Bourbon Fiscal Court to build an electric line from Paris to Lexington and the obligation given of a subscription of $10,000 to a road from Paris to North Middletown, is almost a guarantee that in less than two years a road will be built from Paris to North Middletown and Flat Rock. Paris will give liberally to a road which will open up the eastern portion of Bourbon county, and give it equal railroad facilities with the rest of the county. If $40,000 is raised, the Bluegrass Traction Company will build the road. Immediate steps will be taken to organize a company, secure right of way and the money will be raised without delay."

PUBLIC SALE

OF A FINE

Bourbon Co. Farm.

Having determined to engage in other business, I will sell publicly on the premises 2½ miles East of Paris, on the North Middletown turnpike, on

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1902,

at 10 o'clock, a. m., my farm containing

192.48 ACRES.

The land is in a high state of cultivation, mostly in grass. Upon the farm is a small dwelling house, cabin, a fine stock barn with box stalls, cow barn, granary, ice house and other necessary outbuilding. A large new tobacco barn, three never failing springs, and three pools of never failing water. The place has been newly fenced.

A young orchard of several hundred fruit trees now bearing. In fact, this with the location, and condition, makes it the most desirable farm now on the market. Title perfect.

TERMS.—$1,000 cash, the balance of one-third of the purchase price to be paid March 1, 1903, when possession will be given, the remaining two-thirds in equal payments of one and two years thereafter, with six per cent. on the deferred notes.

The purchaser can have the option of paying all cash if desired, but must make such declaration on day of sale. Any one desiring to examine the farm can call on either of the undersigned.
